Plans for my next summer vacation

I would like to learn to drive, so during the summer vacation I am going to enroll in a driving school. First, I am going to have to attend theoretical classes to familiarize myself with traffic regulations and learn about road safety. Then, I am going to be behind the wheel or to start my driving lessons, I am going to be nervous, but with the guidance of my instructor, I am going to quickly gain confidence. And then the day is going to come when I am going to take my first walk through the city. I am going to be excited to apply everything I have learned. At the same time, I am going to be able to practice a sport to keep fit and have fun. Maybe I can join a soccer team, and so I can have a good time. Besides that, I am going to go out with my friends, and that is going to be another priority that I have. I am going to try to organize movie outings, dinners, and outdoor adventures. We are also going to take the opportunity to drive together, which is going to be an exciting experience. In short, learning to drive is going to allow me to enjoy different aspects of life, from driving independence to having fun with friends and playing sports.
