

Subject: english two.

Teacher's name: isaias Gómez Ballinas.

Work: synoptic table about future tense.

Career: technical nursing high school.

Student's name: Ailyn Yamili Antonio
Gómez

Grade and group: group U

future tense

● interrogative

Is he going to jog?

Is Freddy going to buy a new car soon?

Are John and Pam going to visit Milan when they are in Italy?

I think Nigel and Mary are going to have a party next week?

Aren't you going to stay at the library until your report is finished?

● affirmative

She is going to play handball.

It is going to play handball.

We are going to play handball.

You are going to play handball.

I'm going to visit my sister next Saturday

● negative

She is not going to play handball.

It is not going to play handball.

We are not going to play handball.

You are not going to play handball.

They are not going to play handball.

● Q.W

Are they going to paint their bedroom? No, they aren't

Are you going to swim at the beach? Yes.

Are they going to their graduation party? Yes, they are.

Is Conrad going to buy a new car? No, he isn't.

Are they going to swim at the beach? Not.