

subject:

english three career

general nursing teacher's name

Isaías Gómez ballinas

student's name

clarita del Carmen López Trejo

third quarter

pichucalco, Chiapas 7 june 2020

Auxiliar modal

The modal verb can is used to build sentences that express power or capacity and usually this verb is precisely translated as power. Because it is a modal verb, it has the ability to deny itself without the presence of an auxiliary verb.

Sentences affirmative

- 1-. he can sing at home
- 2-. Ana can dance tomorrow
- 3.- You can speak English
4. She can dance
- 5.- we can get chicken
- 6.- my cat can eat whenever he wants

Sentences Interrogative

- 1.-, can Yolanda you dance? yes i can dance
- 2.- Can he play soccer tomorrow? I can not
- 3 can lupita you run in your house? yes, I can
- 4.- Can John swim? Yes, can swim
- 5.- Can she drive? You can not drive
- 6.- can They read? Yes,

Sentences negative

- 1.- they can't go to school
- 2.- my cat can't dance
- 3.- my sister can't sleep
- 4.- Karla can't buy that car
- 5.- she can't see the clock
- 6.- he can't Kiss his girlfriend