

WRITE A STORY ABOUT YOURSELF AND A FRIEND

This is the story of and Andrea her friend Jose Angel more than a friend was my brother, as children they took us to the ranch and I told my friend where our parents are going and I say that they are going to cut fruit and they have as if to cut it and so we stayed playing to clim the trees and I told him that there is no noise to hear something and it was a very pretty bird that was singing on the top of of a tree that sometimes and in the distance we would go to the river but with the permission of our parents.

Since I was a Little girl I had toothache and my friend had stomach pain because we loved to eat a lot and our parents gave me medicine they gave me a pain pill and he was antacid with the passage of time since he was older that he spend his weekends studyng and I persevered in the chorus of saint augustine in the center when I was 12 years old but always in the same school as my friend we were already in hing school and now that we are already big because in we distanced ourselves somewhat from the study, the change of house that my parents made. He studies a career in business administration and I in nursing, but I follow the san agustin choir on weekends at this age of 18 and my friend studying and working since we used to go to the ranch and now we don't, although sometimes I visit. Now we dedicáte ourselves to fight for our dreams and to achieve achievements and goals in the life of each one.
