“Question form”

Frontera Comalapa, Chiapas a 12 de julio del 2020

Introduction

The questions will always be part of our daily life, useful for many occasions and depending on the same will be your job or performance, from an informal conversation with a friend to a job interview, here is a brief summary applied to the area of medicine.

Developing

The Question forms help us to form interrogative sentences applied to all areas of our daily life, we remember that there are different types of this, including those that are answered with whether or not also called serrated questions, these are usually direct by example, you like chicken? Can you come tomorrow?. Estas preguntas varian segun el tiempo, la persona y el lugar en el que se diga.
