

Nombre del alumno: Suleyma Sinaí Gutiérrez Pérez.

Nombre del profesor: Lic. Jezabel Ivonne Silvestre Montejo.

Licenciatura: Nursing.

Materia: English.

Nombre del trabajo: Synoptic table.

Ensayo del tema:

“Ciencia y Conocimiento

DEMONSTRATIVES PRONOUNS ONE AND ONES AND DEMONSTRATIVES.

Preguntas para cantidades cuanto cuantos.	Are words for asking countable and uncountable amounts.	Has countable nouns related.	For example count one chair, two cars.	The inexpensive can be like sugar or money.	Form for quantity questions are how, much many / uncountable.
Demostrative adjectives, affirmative negative.	Demonstrative adjectives are in the singular and plural.	For example this pen- these pens; that note book.	Has agreement with the possessed.	For example this pencil / these pencils.	Qualifying adjectives are singular and plural.
Grammatical form of adjectives.	Affirmative form.	Negative form	Question form.	Demonstrative adjectives expressed.	This, that, these, those.
One, ones.	They are pronouns.	They go the place of the name already singular and plural.	It has to be mentioned before to know what it refers to.	As long as they are used in pronouns.	Exaple these ones are mine.
Ones.	Those ones are yours.	They are talking about two cuardernos.	When used in questions, which one is used.	If not, the object would have to be mentioned.	Exaple, which book? Which house de you mean.
Demonstrative pronouns.	This it never goes alone, but together with the object.	The same is true for demonstrative pronouns.	How that, these ando tose.	This/that one or these/those ones.	