“Time expressions, "My weekly routine”

Hello, good afternoon Lic. Pos the truth my daily routines are very boring, since on Monday my online classes start and I spend it doing homework in the afternoons and answering forums.

My mother has the habit of talking to me every day since at night she always asks me what I did during the day, so it happened to me to put a little conversation to use the prepositions,

Mom: what did you do every morning this week daughter?

Yatziri: Today Monday I got up at 8 in the morning, then I brushed and as you know that every morning I wash my face, then I made breakfast and we sat down to breakfast with Mom, finishing breakfast, I picked up the dishes and took them to the laundry room, start cleaning the house.

Mom: how interesting tomorrow.

Yatziri: This is Mom, and that's what I did last morning until noon.

Mom: and during the afternoon, what did you do that you didn't answer the phone after?

Yatziri: After we stopped talking, I went to bathe because I had to go downtown because I had things to do and I would already get home around 6 in the afternoon.

The next day in the morning I did the same, well I always do the same thing every day.

With the difference that on Wednesday at noon we meet a friend in the central park to go eat something.

Apart from the fact that every day before going to bathe I do a little exercise to distract myself a bit. Usually that was my routine this week.
