

A warm-toned photograph of a wooden desk. On the left, a laptop is partially visible. In the center, a white mug filled with coffee sits on the desk. To the right of the mug, there is a rolled-up document, a pen, and a smartphone. The background shows a window with blinds and a brick wall. The text 'Relaciones públicas' is written in a white, cursive font across the center of the image, enclosed in a white, hand-drawn rectangular border.
