

Supernote of possessive adjective.

ENGLISH I.

(MTRO. ISAIAS GOMEZ BALLENAS)

PRESENTS THE ALUM:

Flor de Liz García Mendoza

GROUP, SEMESTER AND MODALITY:

I° quarter "A" psychology schooled

Pichucalco, Chiapas

September 18, 2020

Adjective Possessive.

Possessive adjectives are those that modify the noun by adding an idea of belonging or possession.

When the adjectives mine, yours, ours and it's plurals are prepended to the name suffer apocope, which means that they lose one more letters of the ending.

They are our plants.

First person: my

Second person:
you, her, yours,
you

Third person: her

I – my

You – yours

He – his

She – her

It – its

We – our

You – your

They - their

List of possessive adjectives of various possessors.

First person: our

Second person: his, yours.

Third person: his

Examples.

1. Your boyfriend is ver y handsome.
He is my boyfriend.
2. That Hanna drees is so cute.
It's her drees.
3. My brother has a bike.
It's historia bike.
4. You have a post in the yard.
Our in the yard.
5. You ate my steak.
I didn't eat tour steak.
6. That dog is yours.
It's my dog.
7. The chair is mine.
The chair is yours.
8. Mariano has a video gane.
Its' his video game.
9. Those flowers are very pretty.
They are my flowers.
10. Televisión is very big.
It's is our televisión.

