

Name of students: Cristhel Gómez González

teacher's name: Isaias Gómez Ballinas

Name of the job: Synoptic Table

subject: inglés

Grade: 5 cuatrimestre

Group: único

have affirmative

1. I have worked
2. I have been walking on the street during the night.
3. We have been dancing all morning.
4. I have to work tonight.
5. I have played soccer in the backyard.

have negative

1. you don't have to go by plane.
2. I have not cooked today.
3. we have not looked for the keys.
4. I have not worked.
5. I have not bought fruit.

have interrogative

1. have you made your dress? Yes, I have
2. have you worked for your uncle? Yes, I have.
3. have you lost your house keys? Yes, I have.
4. have you talked on the phone today? Yes, I have.
5. have you played ball today? Yes, I have.

Present perfectHas affirmative

1. she has been dancing all night.
2. lola has been studying all afternoon today.
3. maria has cooked a delicious soup.
4. juan has been playing ball all afternoon.
5. jose has been studying for his English classes.

Has negative

1. Mary has not been home today.
2. Pepe has not finished his homework.
3. Marcos has not worked today
4. Rosa hasn't finished dinner.
5. Luis has not had any soft drinks today.

Has interrogative

1. has lisa been at your house today? Yes, she has been.
2. has Maria been watching TV today? Yes, she has.
3. Lucia has worked today? Yes, she has worked.
4. Has Rosa been preparing lunch today? Yes, she has.
5. has juan been dancing at the party today? Yes, he has been dancing.