Infographic about Tapachula.

Tapachula Chiapas is a lovely provincial city located at the border with Guatemala in the Soconusco coastal plains with rainforests of the state of Chiapas, Mexico. The city is also called "The Pearl of the Soconusco". Tapachula Chiapas is a modern city with plenty of accommodation possibilities and restaurants, but at the same time retaining its provincial flavor with colonial buildings, where you can leisurely walk under shade spending trees.

On the main plaza of the town you will find the Hidalgo Park with huge Palm trees and pretty iron wrought benches, where you can relax and recover from the hot humid climate of the rainforest region. In the middle of the Park there is a small kiosk with iron wrought banisters, where we enjoyed listening to the local marimba band, playing soft traditional tunes, and to the municipal band, which also added a musical program. You will be able to take part of this tradition on every weekend.
