DEMONSTRATIVE PRONOUNS
THAT	THIS	THESE	THOSE
If that's what you want, that's what you'll have.	They will come for this tomorrow to take him to the new house.	These are crucial days to know what the year will be like.	Those are the shoes I want to wear tomorrow.
If Rafael appears that could be a problem	let's use this which is recycled	These are hot and humid nights	For those who arrived late, there will be no classes tomorrow.
That wasn't what I wanted.	This is what Manuel wants, a good pair of trousers.	we like these	We work for those who cannot fend for themselves.
Patience, that's its best quality.	He grew up in a house like this, with a garden.	these are not the sneakers I wanted	Those are the tamarinds that Grandpa sowed.
He wants that as a main course.	Marina was injured with this for not using it properly.	these potatoes are my favorite	You will not be like those who act without thinking.
That might be his best poem.	If this is the way, nothing will stop you.	These are the best days of our lives.	They are not like those who give up on the first try.
that is the highest mountain in the mountain range.	We did not choose that path, but this one.	"These are the mañanitas that King David sang."	We went, but there were not those we were looking for
Kids want a cat just like that.	This is not what we wanted for our city.	These are my best friends	They are those clouds that bring rain.

DEMONSTRATIVE PRONOUNS

Los pronombres demostrativos son aquellos que cumplen una función deíctica o mostrativa; es decir, permiten distinguir y nombrar elementos que ya fueron mencionados previamente (sin necesidad de repetirlos). Estos pronombres se clasifican según el grado de distancia que tienen con el objeto señalado.
