

Nombre de alumnos: Yessica de la Cruz
Gómez Bernal

Nombre del profesor: Isaias Gómez Ballinas

Nombre del trabajo: Affirmative, Negative and Interrogative sentences

Materia: Ingles

Grado: 1°

Grupo: A

Jessica De la Cruz Franco Bernal

Affirmative, Negative and Interrogative Sentences with the verb to be

Affirmative

- I am Maria
- I am a teacher
- I am 19 years old
- He is kind
- He is from Switzerland
- He is the best teacher
- It is mine
- It is a cat
- It is a mess
- She is my friend

Negative

- I am not crazy
- I am not a fighter
- She is not my sister
- She is not sick
- She is not here
- She is not sick
- He is not here
- He is not my friend
- He is not a star
- We are not together

Jessica De la Cruz Gomez Bernal

Interrogative Sentences with the Verb to be

- Am I a good student?
- Are we old friends?
- Is he a student?
- Is the pencil on the desk?
- Is she absent from class today?
- Are they friends?
- Is the weather good?
- Is the sky clear?
- Are they brothers?
- Is the child in the garden?

Interrogative

- He is Italian, isn't he?
- Are you sure they live here?
- When did she arrive?
- He has a new girlfriend, hasn't he?
- What do you think about, ~~the new driver?~~
- Would you like to travel to India?
- Have you watched the movie I talked about?
- How many pupils are now at this classroom?
- You are the new gym-trainer, aren't you?
- Would you mind opening that window?
- Does she know our address?
- Will you know my room-mate?

