THE TRUE FALSE SHOW

a) In pairs look at the sentences from "The True False Show". Write T (true) or F (false).

The collage features a mosquito on the Earth, a shark with its mouth open, a tiger, a cat looking at a fish, the planet Mars, and two cars (one yellow, one white). Below the collage is a game show set titled "The TRUE FALSE Show". Three contestants, Emma, Darren, and Jeff, stand at their respective podiums. A host in a black dress stands at a podium on the right, holding a card. The podiums for Emma and Darren have green checkmarks and red crosses, while Jeff's has a green checkmark and a red cross.

The coldest The highest The hottest

EXTREME LIVING

Welcome to the coldest, highest, and hottest places in the world!

The hottest country in the world.

How do people live in Mali, West Africa, where the temperature is often 50°? John Baxter, a BBC journalist in Mali, says, "People get up very early and they don't move very much in the afternoon.

Surprisingly, they wear a lot of clothes (usually cotton) as this helps them not to get dehydrated. Houses are very hot and don't have air conditioning- the best place to sleep is on the roof!

The highest capital city in the world.

La Paz in Bolivia is 4,090 metres above sea level. It can be difficult to breathe because there isn't much oxygen. Liz Tremlett, a travel agent who lives there says, "When people arrive at El Alto airport we sometimes need to give them oxygen". It is also the worst place to be if you drink too much beer. The next day you feel terrible because you get more dehydrated. But La Paz is a very good place to play golf. At this altitude, when you hit a golf ball it goes further!

The coldest place in the world.

Can you imagine living in a place which is four times colder than your freezer? This is Yakutia in Siberia, where in winter it is often -50° or lower. Valeria Usimenko, a housewife, says, "After a few minutes outside your nose fills with ice. It snows a lot and there is always a lot of ice and snow on top of the houses. The most dangerous time is the spring- when the ice falls it can kill people! The winter is very boring because we can't go out much. A lot of babies are born here in the autumn!"

j) Read the article again and answer these questions.

1. Where do people wear a lot of cotton clothes?
en Malí, África occidental.
2. Where is a good place to play golf?
La Paz in Bolivia.
3. Where do people sleep on the roof?

GRAMMAR

Too and enough

- "Too" and "enough" modify adjectives, adverbs and nouns.

"Too" means more than what is needed. "Enough" means sufficient.

Examples (adjectives): He is too old to play football with the kids.
Dave is intelligent enough to do the right thing.

Examples (adverbs): You're not working fast enough.
I don't have enough time.

Examples (nouns): He has too many friends.
He has too much patience.

- "Enough" comes after adjectives and adverbs:

Example (adjective): He isn't old enough to watch this program.

Example (adverb): We're not walking quickly enough.

- "Enough" may also precede nouns:

Example: We have enough money.

- "Too" comes before adjectives and adverbs:

Example (adjective): It's too hot to wear that coat.

Example (adverb): I was driving too fast.

- "Too" may also come before nouns when it is used with the expressions "too much" and "too many".

"Too much" is used before uncountable nouns.

Example: There is too much salt in this food.

- "Too many" is used before countable nouns.

Example: There are too many students in this classroom.

q) Read the conversations between customers and salespeople. Then complete each conversation.

Use "too" or "enough" and an adjective from the list.

1. A: My photocopier is too slow. I'm ready for an upgrade!

B: Ok. I have several models that are very fast. How much do you want to spend?

2. A: These jeans aren't too small. They're very uncomfortable.

B: I'm sorry. Let me get you a larger size. Here you go.

3. A: I like these portable speakers, but they really aren't light for travel enough

B: Then check out this pair. They're lighter, and you can have them for $20.

4. A: Are you sure this microwave is fast enough? I'm a pretty busy guy.

B: Absolutely. The X11 is our fastest model. And I can give you a great price

5. A: How about this fan? Listen. It's very quiet.

B: That's definitely too quiet for my bedroom. And it's very affordable. I'll take it.

6. A: This jacket is a real bargain, sir. It's only $692.

B: $692? That's too expensive. I don't want to spend that much.

Nuria from Spain lives in _____ Driving 8/10 I was surprised- people drive quite slowly. People use their cars for everything. You never see people walking in the street.

Social life 5/10 People don't go out during the week because they work very hard. It's normal to work twelve hours a day and people usually only two weeks' holiday. Work is the most important + more important than family and social life.

People 9/10 People are really nice here. It's easy them. And in shops the shop assistants are very They always say "Have a good day!".

Monica from Argentina lives in _____ Safety 10/10 There is almost no crime here. You can walk safely in the city late at night. And you can leave things in your car and nobody steals them!

Driving 7/10 People drive carefully, but the big problem is that there aren't any street names. It's impossible to find where you traffic lights

Kevin from the UK lives in _____ Clothes 8/10 Appearance is very important. Everybody dresses well, but especially the men. They are very elegant and wear very stylish clothes. It is easy to see who the British people are here!

Food 9/10 They love food and it is fantastic! But times are changing. Today many people under 35 can't cook. Supermarkets are full of food now which you can put in the microwave. When I first came to live here there weren't any McDonald's but now they are everywhere.

Driving 5/10 People here are in love with their cars and they drive very fast. Even the nicest people become more aggressive when they drive.

GRAMMAR

Adverbs

- An adverb is a word used to modify a verb, an adjective, or another adverb.

For example:

She swims quickly.

(Here, the adverb "quickly" modifies the verb swims.)

She swims extremely quickly.

(Here, the adverb "extremely" modifies the adverb quickly.)

She is an extremely quick swimmer.

(Here, the adverb "extremely" modifies the adjective "quick".)

- Many adverbs are formed from adjectives. The basic rule is that -ly is added to the end of the adjective:

For example: slow- slowly.

- If the adjective already ends in -y, the -y usually changes to -i.

Example: unnecessary- unnecessarily.

- If the adjective ends with a consonant followed by -le, replace the final -e with -y on its own:

Example: terrible- terribly
