

Nombre de alumno: Susana Vidal Gómez

Nombre del profesor: Alejandra Vidal Escandón

Nombre del trabajo: Cuadro Sinóptico

Materia: Ingles

Grado: 4

Grupo: A

ADVERBS

Adverb

Característica

- They express circumstances such as they may be, mode, place, time, quantity, affirmation, doubt, etc.
- Also answering questions like, when? where? how? in what way?

Relación con los objetivos

An adjective
Refers to an Object, adverbs
Define the verb
In greater detail

Example

- Adjective
- Normal
- Well
- Adverb
- Usually
- well

Too

Adjectives

When we want to amplify its intensity
• I'm too tall

Adverb

Allows us to indicate the excess of something
• The radio is too loud

noun

It is never followed by a noun, it is an infinite verb
• I'm too tall to fit in there.

Too
And Enough

enough

Adjective

Is used to indicate that there is enough or what is necessary
• You are old enough to go to school your own

Adverb

Indicates that there is a more than enough quantity.
• I am not well enough today

noun

It goes head indispensable if it is countable or uncountable.
• There is enough space in my back yard.

Verbs
Nouns

Regular

Are those who have a regular gender flex
Pupil-student
President-chairwoman

Irregular

The basic way to form them is by adding a "s" in the end.
Book- books
Idea- ideas