NOTA.- Ustedes pueden quitar o poner algo.

Negative sentences use an auxiliary verb and the particle not before the main verb. The auxiliary verb that is used depends on the verb tense of the sentence.

The past tense of negative sentences is formed by writing did before the verb and then writing not. The verb is written in its simple form for regular verbs and for irregular verbs. The use of the contraction didn't (did not) is common.

“Do a super note about negative sentences in past tense.

Write 20 sentences.”
