

Activity 1

February 22nd

Martina Gomes Maria Fernanda

- 1. Count and noncount nouns; some and any
- 2. Count nouns name things you can count: vegetables, eggs, cookies. Count nouns have a singular and plural form: 1 book, 2 books. Noncount nouns name things you can't count: water, spinach, cheese.
- 3. Use some in affirmative sentences. We have some chicken. Use any in negative sentences and questions. We don't have any bread. Do we have any cheese?

Complete the conversations with some or any.

- A: What do you want for lunch?
B: Let's make some sandwiches.
A: Good idea! Do we have any bread?
B: I think there's some in the refrigerator. Let me see... No, I don't see any.
A: Well, let's go to the store. We need some milk, too. And do we have any cheese?
B: Yes, we do. There's some cheese here, and there are some tomatoes, too.
A: Do we have any mayonnaise? I love some mayonnaise on my sandwiches.
B: We do, but there isn't any here. Let's buy some.
A: Let's make a big breakfast tomorrow morning.
B: OK. What do we need? Are there any eggs?
A: There are some, but I think we need to buy some more.
B: OK. And let's get some yogurt, too. We don't have any, and I use yogurt for breakfast.
A: We do. Do you see any bread in the refrigerator?
B: Yes, there's some in the refrigerator.
A: Great! So we don't need to buy any at the store.
B: That's right. Just eggs and yogurt!
