The young people at this stage of their life, develop crime behaviors, which make the change noticeable. It is a stage of rebellion or to be accepted in a group or in society to which it belongs, that is why the change of character.

Other factors that influence the change of attitude are family problems, there are different reasons in which the teen can be happening. All these problems are causes for a young person to present behavioral problems and reflect them in their behavior and academic performance, whether from rebellion or timidity. It is there, the young woman needs psychological help, to be able to get out of that problem, with the help of practices or therapies.

It is one of my goals, to be able to work in an educational institution to help young people with problems and route them to a good development. to be able to understand both of it, the benefit and behavior
