IMPERATIVE MODE

AFFIRMATIVE

We should speak now.
You should speak to your friends about the trip.
Peter should see a doctor.
You should focus more on learning English.
You should visit beautiful places in Guatemala.
I think you should buy a new car.
I really should be in the church before 9.

NEGATIVE

I shouldn't go to work.
I shouldn't play with fire.
I shouldn't eat fast food.
He shouldn't be open to new ideas.
Susan shouldn't be in New York yet.
Mike shouldn't smoke so much.
We shouldn't go there, it is dangerous

INTERROGATIVE

Should we tell her the truth?
What should I do?
Should we try to finish it now?
Who should we call?
Where should we park the car?
How much should I tip the waitress?
Where should we go to eat?

QUESTIONS WORDS

Should we go to the party?
Should we continue running?
Should we drink water instead of coke?
Who should we call?
Where should we go?
What should we do now?
We should talk to mom about it
