

NOMBRE DEL ALUMNO:

Yolanda Morales Mendoza

NOMBRE DEL TEMA:

Futuro idiomático

PARCIAL:

3 Parcial

NOMBRE DE LA MATERIA:

Inglés

NOMBRE DEL PROFESOR:

Isaías Gómez Ballinas

NOMBRE DE LA LICENCIATURA:

Administración en recursos humanos

CUATRIMESTRE:

3 Cuatrimestre

Idiomatic future

Affirmative

We are going to win this match.

I am going to pay my bills next week.

I am pretty sure you're going to give your best.

I am going to visit my grandma this weekend

I am going to open my own business.

They are going to work overtime today.

She is going to remember what you did for her.

I am going to listen to my favorite singer.

He is going to paint my house's facade

He is going to come.

Negative

We are not going to win this match.

I am not going to pay my bills next week.

I am not pretty sure you're going to give your best.

I am not going to visit my grandma this weekend

I am not going to open my own business.

They are not going to work overtime today.

She is not going to remember what you did for her.

I am not going to listen to my favorite singer.

He is not going to paint my house's facade

He is not going to come.

Interrogative

Are we going to win this match?

Am I going to pay my bills next week?

Am I pretty sure you're going to give your best?

Am I going to visit my grandma this weekend?

Am I going to open my own business?

Are they going to work overtime today?

Is she going to remember what you did for her?

Am I going to listen to my favorite singer?

Is he going to paint my house's facade?

Is he going to come?