

López Encinos Anahi Jihovano

And my name is anahi. I grew up with my grandparents in a community I was 8 years why my mom, I had to work I was very playful me and my cousins. We played a lot we were very naughty and my granny got mad because I didn't take care he got angry because all day we go because all day we go to play in the milpa and we always pooped the corn we also played to the food we always leave garbage and they scolded us, we also went out to the mountain, make our swing on one occasion I fell  and it hurt, that would be all