

LICENCIATURA EN
NUTRICIÓN

Student Name: González Gordillo Anthony

Bachelor: Nutrition

Semester: First

Subject: English

Teacher: Eduardo E. Arreola Jiménez

Name of the work: Sentences with irregular verbs

Delivery date: September 24, 2022

Verbo “be”/ “ was/were”

I will be a nutritionist when I finish my degree.

the students were at school yesterday

Verbo “Become” / “Became”

My son wants become a nutritionist anthony became friends with valentina

Verbo “Begin” / “Began”

She is going to begin playing basketball anthony began his career at uds tapachula in 2022.

Verbo “bite” / “bit” my dog his not going to bite you i didn't bite the cake it was anthony verbo “bleed” / “bled” my finger will started to bleed

I think I bled quite a few liters of blood

Verbo “break” / “broke”

Anthony he will break the record this week

I broke my ankle

Verbo “bring” / “brought”

He will bring the pizza in the night

She brought a child to this party

Verbo “build / built

The garden is very spacious, ideal to build a pool.

my house was built in the year 1980

Verbo burn / burned/burnt when the school year is over i'm going to burn my books they served me burnt food

Verbo buy / bought my brother had to buy the roses for his girlfriend my mom bought a tv on amazon

Verbo catch / caught brother let's catch candy at the party

Children and adolescents are caught by video games

Verbo come / came

These vases come in a wide variety of colors.

the package came incomplete and in poor condition

Verbo cost / cut the total cost of my mom's purchase is very expensive my mom cuts the fruit into squares

Verbo do / did the teacher gave me two days to do my homework

I did the same as my father

Verbo draw / drew

I am going to draw my family on a white sheet

I drew a rectangle but I did it wrong

Dream / dreamed visiting disney world is my dream

This toy is what I have always dreamed

Verbo drink / drank

Pozol is the typical drink of Chiapas he who has not drank pozol has not visited chiapas Verbo drive / drove

I'm going to drive to the plaza

I drove to the beach

Verbo eat / ate

I'm going to eat Italian food yesterday I ate french food

Verbo fall / fell

I had a very ugly fall in my house

I fell from the second floor

Verbo feed / fed

I will feed my dog with imported food my dog is very well fed

Verbo feel / felt my dad began to feel that his heart was beating very slowly my mother felt pain in her lower back

Verbo fight / fought my brother got into a fight at school my uncle fought against cancer and managed to beat it

Verbo find / found my mom found her old toys my grandfather found the Miguel hidalgo college

Verbo fit / fit

i had to fit my desk as it was loose

Verbo fly / flew

I would like to be able to fly my brother jumped on a parachute and flew through the air

Verbo forbid / forbade

I have to forbid my son from going to clubs my mom forbade going out at night because of how dangerous it is Verbo forget / forgot

I have to forget my ex-girlfriend my aunt forgot her swimsuit

Verbo get / got my best friend is going to get a diploma for his good grades my mom was recognized for her great work at the migrant shelter

Verbo give / gave my mom is going to give food to the migrants my dad gave food to migrants

Verbo go / went my friend told me let's go to a party and I said yes my friend went to a party without me

Verbo grow / grew my plant has already started to grow my brother has grew very quickly

Verbo have / had

I'm going to have classes tomorrow my brother has not had classes in two days

Verbo hear / Heard

I started to hear screams outside my house my mom heard my cries of happiness

Verbo hit / hit my dad hit my uncle my mom hit me

Verbo hold / held i will hold calm in this situation my money is being held in the bank

Verbo hurt / hurt

my cat is hurt

Verbo keep / kept let's keep this a secret my grandmother kept many things a secret

Verbo know / knew with all the languages you know you are very intelligent he is the only one who knew

Verbo leave / left never leave me you have not left the child at home

Verbo lend / lent

I'm going to lend you money

I have already lent you a lot of money

Verbo let

I'm going to let the key on the table

Verbo lose / lost

i lose my wallet

the child is lost

Verbo make / made

let's make a model

I have made many models in college

Verbo mean / meant what do you mean

What did your friend meant me

Verbo pay / paid

I'm going to pay you the money you lent me the debt was paid

Verbo put

I'm going to put the key in its place

Verbo quit

If you decide to quit drinking im be happy

Verbo read

I'm going to read a history book

Verbo ride / rode

I'm going to ride a bike my uncle rode a horse yesterday

Verbo ring / rang

I gave my dad a ring the phone rang many times

Verbo rise / rose we are going to raise the prices

I rose the prices of things

Verbo run / ran

I'm going to run

I used to run ten kilometers a day

Verbo say / said

I will say that if I want to marry him your brother said you were sleeping

Verbo see / saw

I'm going to see your mom
I saw your mom yesterday

Verbo sell / sold

I am going to sell bread yesterday I sold a lot of fish

Verbo send / sent

I'm going to send you a message Yesterday I sent you a message

Verbo sew / sewed

I'm going to sew my pillow yesterday your mom sewed your pillow

Verbo shake / shook you should shake your milkshake my uncle shook his bed

Verbo sing / sang

she sings really nice he sang band before

Verbo sit / sat

I went to sit next to him

he sat next to me

Verbo sleep / slept

i go to sleep

my uncle is already sleep

Verbo speak / spoke

I'm going to speak with my mom he spoke confidently

Verbo spend / spent she likes to spend a lot my mom spent a lot of money

Verbo spread

We're here to spread our message

Verbo stand / stood stand up son it's late

Here stood with me

Verbo steal / stole

I'm going to steal that car

My wallet was stole

Verbo stick / stuck

If you find something that really be happy, stick with it.

I'm stuck under my bed

Verbo Sting / stung

I have a bee sting on my arm you've already been stung by a bee

Verbo strike / struck we are going to hold a strike tomorrow my brother was struck up

Verbo swim / swam he is going to swim

my uncle swam a lot

Verbo take / took

I will take money from your bag he took money without authorization

Verbo teach / taught she is going to teach math she taught me literature

Verbo tell / told tell him that I like him a lot

I had told him not to do it

Verbo think / thought

I think you are cute

I thought I was different from the others

Verbo throw / threw

I throw the garbage instead

I threw the garbage instead

Verbo understand / understood

I will understand your decisión

I already understood the topic

Verbo wake / woke you must wake up early

I woke up late in high school

Verbo wear / wore

I wear a sweater because I'm cold she wore very elegant last night

Verbo win / won win the trophy for best player of the tournament my uncle won a chess tournament

Verbo write / wrote

I write a love letter

I wrote you a letter yesterday

Bibliografía

Anthology of the English subject granted by the university