

Universidad Del Sureste

Nombre del alumno: Angela Jenifer Luis Espina

Licenciatura En Enfermería

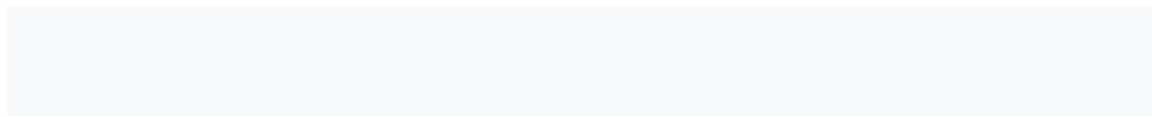

1er Cuatrimestre

Asignatura: Ingles I

Docente: Enrique Eduardo Arreola Jiménez

Actividad: Oraciones con verbos irregulares en presente y pasado.

Fecha de entrega: 24 de septiembre de 2022

Sentences with base form and simple past

The bread of life must be eaten by each one.

Today was a good day for me and Mariana.

I become what leat.

She became famous.

Classes begin in August.

They began dating last month.

The dog will bite the toy.

The dog bit the toy.

The father bleed out in less.

He always breaks his promises.

She broke the cup.

He never brings anything.

I brought you some fruit.

The want to build a treehouse.

The workers built a bridge in less than a month.

She burns my soul.

She burned my soul.

I forgort to buy bread.

I bought you a present.

They catch a lot of fish in this lake.

They finally caught the thief.

You choose your classes at registration.

He chose a long password.

The bus comes every morning.

They came from spain.

The house costs a lot.

The car cost a lot of money.

She cuts an apple.

She cut an apple.

The machine does it all.

We did all we could to help.

You draw a big car.

He drew a landscape for me.

You were in my dream last night.

I dreamed a strange dream.

I drink a lot of water.

He drank a glass of orange juice.

He drives a truck for a living.

She drove home in car.

We usually eat around seven o' clock.

He ate all the cake.

I'm learning to skate, but I fall a lot.

Frank fell from the ladder.

He was too weak to feed himself.

During the flight my pet will be fed and hydrated.

She feels happy.

She felt dizzy.

Sometimes couples fight about money.

My grandfather fought in the war.

I can't find my wallet.

I found your book behind the couch.

This jacket fits nicely.

I tried everything on, but nothing fit me.

During the flight my pet will be fed and hydrated.

Jamal and his seven children fled Syria three years ago.

I fly to Orlando on Sunday.

The kids flew their kites in the field.

The company's rules forbid dating among employees.

They forbade their children to watch violent movies.

I hear you are quitting.

I heard a noise.

This bucket holds two gallons.

He held the door for me.

We keep in touch.

She kept all his letters.

The flight leaves in an hour.

You left the light on.

My brother always lends me his bike.

My mother lent me the money.

We always lose to that team.

I lost my phone at the stadium.

Everyone makes mistakes.

I already made the bed.

The red light means stop.

I meant to leave you a key.

On Friday we meet at my house.

We met I high school.

They pay me well.

I paid with a credit card.

He hits the ball every time.

You hit the tree last night.

My knee hurts.

The bird hurt it is wing.

My dad lets me drive.

He let the bird go.

He runs every morning.

He ran every morning.
He knows my father.
He knew my father.
I put salt in my food.
We put the letter in the mailbox.
She quits going to school.
Yesterday, I quit my job.
He rids off the snake.
Last night, I rid of the trash.
I spread butter on my bread.
He spread the news.
Gina reads in bed every night.
He read they whole book in one day.
The kids ride their bikes to school.
I rode to work with Kevin.
They say the oceans are rising.
You said you were getting married.
They sell used cars.
We sold our boat.
She always sends me a birthday card.
I sent him an apology.
We all sit together at dinner.
Maria sat next to me at the concert.
He works at night and sleeps during the day.
I slept like a log.
He speaks four languages.
I spoke to him about the rent.
We spend a lot on groceries.
I spent all my money.

I can't stand the noise.

We stood there for an hour.

That ring has been in our family for years.

The cell phone rang, but he went back to sleep.

A region around the lake gives rise to two rivers.

It is the rose which bloomed in Canada.

You can sew and cook, Maria will be happy with that.

She sewed me a dress for our meeting.

Before filling the ink, shake the bottle for a minute.

The captain of the guard shook his head.

He can sing in the restaurant of our hotel.

She sang and encouraged all the audience that was present.

You must stick to your ideals in spite to everything.

She got a piece of bread stuck in her throat.

This is a delayed reaction to the sting.

Your friend was stung by a wasp.

You swim very well.

He swam to the other end of the pool.

I always take an umbrella.

We took a taxi.

He teaches history.

Pablo taught me to swim.

I think we should talk.

I thought it would be easy.

First you throw the dice.

He threw me the ball.

I understand your fear.

I understood everything.

He usually wakes up early.

I woke up late.

He always wears a suit and tie.

She wore the red dress.

The other team always wins.

Enrique won the elections.

He still writes four a newspaper.

I wrote a letter the mayor.

It gets dark early in the winter.

I got your email.

She gives swimming lessons.

He gave us a ride home.

She goes to a good school.

We went to the movies last night.

This tree grows well here.

The company grew rapidly.

You have a nice house.

They had some problems.

Becky can you go to the store for me.

She went to the store.

You stole my heart.

He stole my bike.

Let me tell you a story.

She told me she'll be back in an hour.

Bibliography

Richard C. jack (2013) interchange intro Cambridge Basic English – level 1