

Mi Universidad

Nombre del Alumno: Luz Elena Oramas Estefano

Nombre del tema: Verb To Be Affirmative, Negative and Interrogative.

Parcial: 1er

Nombre de la Materia: Inglés

Nombre del profesor: Isais Gomez Ballinas

Nombre de la Licenciatura: Enfermería

Cuatrimestre: 1er

Pichucalco, Chiapas. 21/09/22

Verb To Be

Afirmative

it expresses a general sustainability, or something that is of a permanent character.

- 1) I am a doctor
- 2) Oberth is from Canadá
- 3) Rome is in Europe
- 4) Brenda is my sister
- 5) Elena is Mexican
- 6) Laura is so pretty
- 7) Canada is very big
- 8) The breakfast is delicious
- 9) The teacher is angry
- 10) I am twenty one years old

Negative

In English, not is used after the verb be to form a negative sentence.

- 1) I am not interested in soccer
- 2) He is not married
- 3) My dad is not happy
- 4) the dog is not asleep
- 5) She's not my girlfriend
- 6) He's not working
- 7) He's not my friend
- 8) The cat is not mine
- 9) The car doesn't have hers
- 10) The house is not yours

Afirmative

To form questions in English, the correct form of the verb be is placed at the beginning of the sentence followed by the subject and only a sign of question mark (?) at the end of the sentence.

- 1) Are you okey?
- 2) Are they ready?
- 3) Is elena a nurse?
- 4) Is Laura happy?
- 5) Are you at school?
- 6) Is Pedro working?
- 7) Am I winning?
- 8) Is he the best doctor?
- 9) Is she your best friend?
- 10) Are you helping me?