PRESENT PERFECT

AFFIRMATIVE

I have eaten armadillo three times.
I have seen a good movie this week.
We have had ham for dinner tonight.
She has listened to a great song this afternoon.
I've begun to learn English this week.

AFFIRMATIVE

My sister has already made a big cake.
I have seen that movie.
My baby has slept since all night.
I have studied at home for one hour.
She has gone to the library.

NEGATIVE

I have not eaten armadillo three times
I have not worked for my uncle.
She has not finished her homework.
We have not visited them for the last year.
It has not rained for the last month.

NEGATIVE

They have not completed the project.
I have not cooked something special for you.
He has not finished reading my book.
You have not invested in something revolutionary.
We have not looked everywhere for the keys.

INTERROGATIVE

Have you eaten armadillo three times a day?
Have you worked for your uncle?
Has she finished her homework?
I have to go, have we talked for more than two hours?
Have we visited them in the last year?

INTERROGATIVE

Has it rained in the last month?
Have they completed the project?
Have you cooked something special for me?
Have you worked in that firm for many years?
Has he finished reading my book?

QW

Where have you been?
What have you done lately?
When has he studied?
How has she made this cake?
Which one of these has she chosen?

QW

How many books has she bought?
How long have you lived here?
How much have you spent in those shoes?
When was the last time you've eaten?
Who has called her?
