RESUMEN

In the story the characters are: Cinderella, stepmother, stepsisters, prince, six mice, horses and servants of the prince. The introduction begins when they tell us that Cinderella's mother died and her father got married. Cinderella was a very pretty girl who, when her father died, stayed at her stepmother's house with her stepsisters, they called her "Cinderella" because her stepmother only let her sit near the cinders. Cinderella was in charge of cleaning the home, they treated her like a servant. The introduction ends when the family is invited to a party at the king's palace and Cinderella's stepmother and stepsisters tell Cinderella that they are going, but they leave her at home. The climax begins when Cinderella begins to cry, and suddenly a fairy godmother arrives to save the night, Cinderella was crying but the fairy godmother told her not to cry anymore because she could go to the ball. The fairy godmother with her magic wand makes a beautiful dress for Cinderella and turns a pumpkin into a carriage with six mice that became horses. The fairy warned Cinderella that the magic would last until 12:00 A.M. Cinderella arrives at the ball and after a while the prince asks her to dance, they fall in love when it is the 12:00 A.M., Cinderella runs out of the palace and leaves her slipper forgotten. The prince goes after her and lifts the slipper. Then the prince searches everywhere for the lady who will fit the slipper, when Cinderella arrives at the house, her stepsisters do everything possible to make the
