

Sentences

- They treated her with the great contempt
- While crying her fairy godmother appears
- Losing one of her shoes
- Will be undone at midnight
- She still stays sweet and serene

Personajes

- Cinderella
- Stepmother
- Father
- Prince
- Godmother

Introducción

Cinderella's father a widower, married a woman with two daughter. When he died, full of envy for her sweetness and beauty, they treated her with great contempt and forced her to do the dirtiest tasks; but she still stays sweet and serene, the prince organizes a dance to find a wife but despite being his greatest illusion the stepmother prevents cinderella from attending.

Climax

While crying her fairy godmother appears, who transforms her into a princess to go to the dance warning that the spell will be undone at midnight. Cinderella and the prince fall in love and dance non-stop, but at midnight cinderella runs off, losing one of her shoes.

The end

The prince decides to try in on all the girls and marry the one he serves. And despite the evil attempts of the stepmother and her daughters. Finally the shoe serves cinderella, who marries the prince.