

Jonathan Jiménez Gomez

The tortoise and the hare

Past continuous

* There was a hare who spent all day bragging about how fast he could run

Future continuous

* You most will be kidding

Past continuous

* The tortoise was only a few steps away from the starting line

Past continuous

* Confident that he was going to win the race, the hare decided to stop in the middle of the road to rest under a tree.

* The tree was very relaxing, so much so that the hare fell asleep.

* He was determined not to give up.

* The tortoise was winning the race

* The tortoise was crossing the finish line and he had lost the race.

The tale of the tortoise and the hare, has as characters hare and the turtle as main characters and as supporting characters we found the fox, owl and another number of animals who gathered to watch the race. The introduction of the story is when tells us that the hare is very vain who spent all day bragging how fast he could run and one day

Another Fables Series

The turtle got tired of hearing the same thing every day, the turtle challenged him to compete in a race. and the Climax it starts when all the animals in the forest find out about the race. and gather to witness the epic race between a tortoise and a hare. The bear started the race screaming "Ready, set, GO!". As expected, the hare immediately came forward, The he looked back and saw that the turtle found himself a few steps from the starting line and the hare thinks what a slower tortoise, and the hare stopped in the middle of the road to rest under a tree. while the hare rested, the tortoise went on and on walking slowly, but without pause, determined not to give up no matter what. The end of the story is when the turtle approaches the goal and all the animals in the forest began to scream with excitement, the screams woke up the hare but it was too late because the turtle was crossing the finish line. The hare had lost the race.