The story starts when a woman got pregnant with Rapunzel, she and her husband lived not to the witch's house, the witch's house had a garden full of many beautiful flowers and a tree with many, many apples but it was surrounded by a very high wall, the pregnant woman looked at the apples through the window every day and was anxious to eat them, she spent all day thinking about it and it affected her, since it made her lose weight, so one night her husband decided to go to cut some apples for his wife, and when eating them he recovered quickly but his desire increased and he wanted more and his husband went for more but this time he met the witch and said: "So you are the thief to my apples". The man explained that they are to save the life of his pregnant wife, then the witch told him than when the girl was born he had to give it to her.

When the girl was 12 years old, the witch locked her in a tower and for her to go up with her, she yelled at her: "Rapunzel, Rapunzel, throw your braid!".
One day a prince heard Rapunzel sing and fell in love with her singing, so he climbed the tower in the same way as the witch at night, until one day the witch noticed and decided to cut Rapunzel's hair and took her to live in a place far away; He cast a spell on the prince to go blind.
After a while the prince without seeing came to the place where Rapunzel was, then Rapunzel hugged him and began to cry, when her tears fell on the prince the spell disappeared, then they got married and lived happily ever after.
