Summary

Introduction

It begins on a farm when the mother duck has her ducklings, but one of them comes out different from the others, she was born with gray feathers and not yellow.

Climax

Since he was a different duck than his brothers, they did not want to play or live with him, so he felt sad and one day he decided to escape and went away from the farm, when he left he wondered why he was ugly so he decided to ask him to all kinds of over and thus discover why it is different.

The end

The duckling got discouraged after no one said anything to him, so he got further away from everyone, until one day he heard noises in a lake near where he was, he decided to get closer and saw his reflection in the lake and realized that he had changed a lot, and when he saw the other birds he realized that they looked alike and it turned out to be a swan, the swans that were in the lake told him that he would come with them, so he approached and stayed living with them.
