Geppetto looked out the window to the twinkling star

This story is about a man named Geppetto, who is happy making wooden toys but at the same time he feels sad for never having had a son, for which he prepared to make one made of a wooden oak, called Pinocchio. His life and is a real child at the same time that he makes the wish of a star passes but it is not just any star it was a Zani Fairy who would come to fulfill his dream in turn is discovered by a little Cricket named Pope the Cricket which they leave him the wonderful job of being the voice of reason in the acts of Pinocchio. Gepeto wakes up with the surprise that Pinocchio is alive at first he is scared but later he is happy since his dream has come true. As a son Gepeto gives his all so that he can go to study but all this is interrupted by a person named Foxy who scams Pinocchio by telling him to leave school to go to a fair but this is all a plan. Evil to kidnap him and make him work for his own benefit. Foxy takes Pinocchio and Gepeto is dedicated to looking for him in all possible places until one day he goes sailing in the sea and is swallowed by a whale. Pinocchio finds out all the lies so he decides to escape from Foxy, sinking into the sea and being swallowed by the same whale as Gepeto. They both meet and are happy since not all the world are impossible to be able to meet again together. They devise a plan to get out of the whale. Pinocchio, Gepeto and Pepe the cricket are ready to go out. They light a bonfire which makes the whale sneeze and they shoot out saving themselves. They return home and live a happy life. Pinocchio fulfills his duties and by fulfilling he becomes a real child, culminating this story with a happy ending.
