LITTLE RED RIDING HOOD

Once upon a time there was a sweet little girl. Her grandmother loved her very much, and she gave her a little cap made of red velvet. Because it suited her so well, and she wanted to wear it all the time, she came to be known as Little Red Riding Hood.

One day her mother said to her:

- Come Little Red Riding Hood. Here is a piece of cake and a bottle of wine. Take them to your grandmother. She is sick and weak, and they will do her well. Behave yourself on the way, and do not leave the path –

Little Red Riding Hood promised to obey her mother. When Little Red Riding Hood entered the woods a wolf came up to her. She did not know what a wicked animal he was, and was not afraid of him.

- Where are you going so early, Little Red Riding Hood? - asked the wolf

- To my grandmother's house -

- And what are you carrying under your apron? - asked the wolf again

- My grandmother is sick and weak, and I am taking her some cake and wine -

- Listen, Little Red Riding Hood, haven't you seen the beautiful flowers that are blossoming in the woods? Why don't you go and take a look? It is very beautiful in the woods.

Little Red Riding Hood opened her eyes and saw the sunlight breaking through the trees and how the ground was covered with beautiful flowers. She thought, "If I take a bouquet to grandmother, she will be very pleased"

And she ran off into the woods looking for flowers. Each time she picked one she thought that she could see an even more beautiful one a little way off, and she ran after it, going further and further into the woods. But the wolf ran straight to the grandmother's house and knocked on the door.

- Who's there? - asked the Grandmother

- Little Red Riding Hood. I'm bringing you some cake and wine.

- Come in, my dear – said the grandmother

The wolf pressed the latch, and the door opened. He stepped inside, went straight to the grandmother's bed, and ate her up. Then he took her clothes, put them on, and put her cap on his head. He got into her bed and pulled the curtains shut.

When Little Red Riding Hood arrived, she walked into the parlor, and everything looked so strange that she thought, Grandmother was lying there with her cap pulled down over her face and looking very strange.

- Oh, grandmother, what big ears you have!

- All the better to hear you with.

- Oh, grandmother, what big eyes you have!

- All the better to see you with.

- Oh, grandmother, what big hands you have!

- All the better to grab you with!

- Oh, grandmother, what a horribly big mouth you have!

- All the better to eat you with!

And with that he jumped out of bed, jumped on top of poor Little Red Riding Hood, and ate her up. As soon as the wolf had finished this tasty bite, he climbed back into bed, fell asleep, and began to snore very loudly.

A huntsman was just passing by. He thought it strange that the old woman was snoring so loudly, so he decided to take a look. He stepped inside, and in the bed there lay the wolf that he had been hunting for such a long time.

- He has eaten the grandmother, but perhaps she still can be saved. I won't shoot him, thought the huntsman.

So he took a pair of scissors and cut open his belly. Little Red Riding Hood and the grandmother came out alive. Then Little Red Riding Hood fetched some large heavy stones. They filled the wolf's belly with them, and when he woke up and tried to run away, the stones were so heavy that he fell down dead. The three of them were happy, and Little Red Riding Hood returned home happily and safely.

WRITE A SUMMARY MINIMUM 180 WORDS

This story tells us about a girl. Everyone knew her as Little Red Riding Hood, because her grandmother gave her a red hat as a gift that she always wanted to wear. One day when her grandmother felt bad, her mother asked her to please bring her some things to improve her life. Little Red Riding Hood said yes to her mom and left. When Little Red Riding Hood got to the forest, she met the wolf. I ask you, what are you wearing? and where you're going?. When Little Red Riding Hood replied: I'm going to my grandmother's house, I'll take her some things because she feels bad, the wolf told her to see those flowers with the intention of arriving with her grandmother earlier. Little Red Riding Hood thought, if I bring her these flowers my granny will be happier. The wolf arrived at the grandmother's house and pretended to be the little red hood, then the grandmother told him to come in and when the wolf entered he ate her. When Little Red Riding Hood arrived, she saw that her grandmother looked very different and she asked her questions. When he asked the last question, the wolf ate it. As the wolf ended up very tired, he fell a sleep. At that moment, a huntsman who heard loud noises passed by and decided to enter. In that he saw the wolf, he went for some scissors to open its stomach and the little hood came out with the grandmother. Little Red Riding Hood had the idea of filling the wolf with stones and when he woke up he couldn't get up and fell dead. So Little Red Riding Hood, the grandmother and the huntsman lived happily.
