The Snowman

Tells the story of some children who build a snowman on a cold winter morning when everything is covered in snow at dawn. The children, excited, give shape to the friendly 'Snowman' who, by magic, will come to life thanks to his two little friends.

It was nearly Christmas. Katie woke up and found that the world was white and magical.

- Snow, she shouted, snow for Christmas.

She ran outside and danced in the snow. Her brother Eddie came out too. They made a big round snowball and a small one. They put them together and made a huge snowman. On Christmas Eve they looked at the snowman. He waved at them. He was alive!

What did the snowman really want?

The doll replied: - I want to feel the warmth of a home, like this family's...

- Make your wish then - the frost insisted. - I want to enter this house and spend Christmas with this family.

What I found in this story was a lot of simple future was/were and some cases of past continuous
