AUXILIAR NEGATIVO TIEMPO PASADO

Auxiliary verbs exist to make our lives easier (they give us help!). And in the case of the negative past simple, that's exactly what they do. To formulate the past simple in the negative, you simply have to put didn't in front of the infinitive form.

- I didn't go to the movies yesterday.
- He didn't go to school yesterday.
- They didn't go to work yesterday.

Didn't is the contraction of did not. You will not find yourself doing not very often, except in writing or when you want to emphasize something

Remember: place didn't in front of the main verbs. First we will see I didn't: /aididnt/.

No viví en un piso el mes pasado.

I didn't live in a flat last month.

No le mandé un email (a ella) ayer.

I didn't send an e-mail to her yesterday.

No caminé a casa anoche.

I didn't walk home last night.
