10 interrogatives

A hand-drawn diagram consisting of a central text block and two arrows. The text block is on the left and contains the title '10 interrogatives using' followed by a list of ten interrogatives. The list items are: 'What (for a thing, when there are many things)', 'Which (for a thing, when there aren't many things)', 'Who (for a person)', 'Where (for a place)', 'Why (for a reason)', 'When (for a time)', 'How (for a method)', and 'Whose (to ask about possession)'. The list is partially obscured by purple brushstrokes. Two arrows originate from the top and bottom of the text block, pointing to the right.
