Snow White and the Seven

Introducción

A very beautiful queen is envious of her step-daughter snow white when her magic mirror tells her that snow white has become the most beautiful in the kingdom and orders a soldier to kill her. The soldier takes pity on her and releases her into the forest, where he finds refuge in a small house inhabited by seven dwarfs. She stays to live with them, in exchange for helping them clean and cook. A but the stepmother finds out from her through her mirror that she is still alive, and prepares her a poisoned apple, which she gives her to taste by posing as an old saleswoman.

after a few minutes snow white wakes up and in a coffin shake, snow white expels the piece of apple from her throat and revives her, snow white when she wakes up can see all the animals and the seven dwarfs around her and can see a prince who falls in love with the prince with whom she would marry and they would be very happy forever away from her stepmother.

Snow white's story make us understand that we should not trust the people around us because they may be the ones who can do us the most harm and that envy is a negative feeling that leads us to feel angry, lonely and sad, as happened to Ban snow white's stepmother who envied her stepdaughter's beauty.
