"Resumen"

It all starts in a city where the largest chocolate factory was located. One day the factory gave its chocolates a golden ticket that meant that they could visit the factory. Five children were chosen. One was the daughter of a millionaire, another was a gymnast medalist, the other was the son of a scientist, ~~the other~~ but the boy a lover of video games, the other was a lover of chocolates and the last one was a very humble boy. And the day came when they would visit the factory they arrived and Willi Wonka the owner of the factory received them and began the tour. The only rule was to be careful during the tour. They saw many things: rivers of chocolate, candy grass, squirrels opening nuts, chewing gum with food flavors, cotton candy, among many other things in each area. Each child had a problem for which they had been withdrawn and only one of them remained, the humble child. What they did not know was that Willi Wonka had ordered the tickets to be placed to look for his heir. At that moment, the humble boy became his heir, but with ~~the~~ the
