

Nombre del Alumno: Alan Diaz Cárdenas

Nombre del tema

Parcial: 2

Nombre de la Materia: Ingles

Nombre del profesor: Andrea Berenice segura León

Nombre de la Licenciatura: Enfermería

Cuatrimestre: 2

The frog prince

Introduction

In a land far away, a princess was enjoying breeze outside her family's palace. She carried with her a small golden ball that was her most prized possession. While playing, he tossed it so high that he lost sight of it and the ball rolled into a pond. The princess began to cry uncontrollably. Then a little frog jumped out of the pond.

- what happened beautiful princess? - asked the frog.

The princess wiped away her tears and said:
- My favorite golden ball is lost at the bottom of the pond, and nothing will bring it back.

The frog tried to comfort the princess and assured her that she could get the golden ball back if she would grant him just one favor.

- anything! I will give you all my jewels, handfuls of gold and even my clothes!
- exclaimed the princess.

The frog explained that he did not need riches, and that in return he only asked that the princess allow him to eat from her plate and sleep in her room.

The idea of sharing a plate and room with a frog displeased the princess very much, but she accepted, thinking that the frog would never find its way to the palace.

The frog plunged into the pond and in the twinkling of an eye had retrieved the ball.

The next morning, the princess found the frog waiting for her at the palace gate.

- I have come to claim what was promised - said the frog.

Hearing this, the princess ran to her father crying. When the kind king heard about the promise, he said:

Climax

A promise is a promise. Now, you must let the frog stay here.

The princess was very angry but she had no choice but to let the frog stay.

That was how the frog ate from his plate and slept on his pillow. At the end of the third night, the princess, tired of the presence of the undesirable guest, got out of bed and threw the frog on the floor.

Then the frog proposed a deal:

-If you give me a kiss, I will disappear forever-

Said the frog.

The very disgusted princess planted a kiss on the frog's bony forehead and exclaimed:

-I have done my part, now leave immediately.-

Conclusion

Suddenly, a cloud of white smoke filled the room. To the princess's surprise, the frog really was a handsome prince trapped by a wicked witch's curse. Her kiss had freed him from a life of loneliness and sadness. The princess and the prince became instant friends, after a few years they got married and lived happily ever after.

Characters.

- * The princess.
- * The Frog.
- * The King

Pasado Simple:

- * a princess was enjoying breeze outside her family's palace.
- * I have come to claim what was promised.

Pasado simple:

- * The frog explained that he did not need riches

Presente continuo:

- * A princess was enjoying breeze outside her family's palace.
- * While playing he tossed it so high that he lost sight of it and the ball rolled into a pond.
- * and nothing will bring it back.
- * anything!
- * The frog explained that he did not need riches.

* The next morning

Futuro simple:

- * and nothing will bring it back.
- * I will give you all my jewels.
- * The frog explained that he did not need riches.
- * If you give me a kiss, I will disappear forever.