The ugly duckling

- Introduction.

Once upon a time down on an old farm, lived a duck family, and Mother Duck had been sitting on a clutch of new eggs. One nice morning, the egg hatched and out popped six crispy ducklings.

But one egg was bigger than the rest, and it didn't hatch. Before she had time to think about it, the last egg hatched.

A strange looking duckling with gray feathers that should have been yellow gazed at a worried mother. The ducklings grew quickly, but Mother Duck had a secret worry.

- Climax.

Well, the gray duckling certainly wasn't pretty. As the days went by, the poor ugly duckling became more and more unhappy because his brothers didn't want to play with him.

He felt sad and lonely. He secretly wept at night. He felt nobody wanted him.

Nobody loves me, they all tease me! Why am I different from my brothers?

Then one day at sunrise, he ran away from the farmyard. He stopped at a pond and began to question all the other birds.

"Do you know of any ducklings with gray feathers?"

like mine? =

The end.

When the beautiful birds saw him, they realized he was one of their kind, and soon made friends.

"We're swans like you!" they said, warmly.

"Were have you been hiding?"

"It's a long story", replied the young swan, still astounded.

Now, he swam majestically with his fellow swans.

One day, he heard children on the river bank exclaim "Look at that young swan! He's the finest of them all!" And he almost burst with happiness.
