climax

Once upon a time there was a girl named Mulan, they prepared her to get married but she didn't want to and if she didn't she would disappoint her family, once she got home and realized that they sent a letter to her father, she read it and looked at what they were sending her father to the war, she didn't walk well, so one night before she got ready and cut her hair to go in her place, no one noticed that she was a woman, so she left. She went to war and fought the enemy, she rescued her country and was named the governor's right hand and that is how she regained the respect of her family
