Hood

In this story we will be telling a story about a girl called little Red Hood and the Hood it is said that the girl is adorable and kind, but most of all by her grandmother, little Red Hood is a girl who loved her grandmother very much; one day her mother gives her a basket of food to take to her grandmother, who is sick and lives in a house a little far from them. On the way she meets the Big Bad wolf who challenges her to a race to the granny's house.

And she, accepting the wolf's race, went along the path of the forest where there were beautiful flowers, the wolf went the other way and that is where little Red Riding Hood did not obey her mother to talk to strangers one day, his mother asked him to take some cakes to his grandmother who lived on the other side of the Forest, recommending the way, because crossing the Forest was very dangerous, since the wolf was always lurking there. little Red Riding Hood put her basket on the grass and amused herself picking flowers, The wolf is gone, she thought, I have nothing to fear. Grandma will be very happy when I bring her a beautiful bouquet of flowers in addition to the cakes.

Conclusion

The conclusion of the little Red Riding Hood story is that children should be taught from a very young age not to talk to strangers or give them their address and that parents should avoid letting children go out alone as it is dangerous.
