Introduction

This story is about Cinderella, a princess who lived with her stepsisters, but they were mean to the princess. On one occasion a king sent to invite all the princesses and young ladies to a great dance so that his son the prince could choose a wife. Cinderella's stepmother did not want her to go to the dance and she did everything possible for Cinderella not to go to the dance, but Cinderella's godmother appeared and helped her go to the dance, there she met the prince and they fell in love. They got married.

Climax

Cinderella had her friend Jack, a little mouse, for company. One morning Cinderella met a new friend another little mouse whom she adopted and named Gus. Everything was going well Cinderella prepared breakfast for her stepsisters until in the afternoon a postman arrived at Cinderella's house to leave an invitation from a great dance that
