What did you do on your holidays?

This holidays I felt very happy, I think christmas makes us feel memorably things. When my classes over, I felt good for having obtained a passing grade, and that is how the holidays began. The christmas day I was with my father all day, we saw a Korean murder series, after, we dined and talked different things, the christmas tree was lit, maked pretty the living room. The midnight arrived flew, and the sleepy was took effect in our body, I went to bed, the music of the neighbors vibrated in my windows and my brain. After to christmas I helped to my father, we burned their land, he is a farmer and cultivated sugar cane, my eyelashes were burned, my nose was full of ashes but I felt very happy because my father was happy. The new year arrived and was a little different, something new that I did not do before...
