

Nombre de la Presentación

Nombre del Alumno: Abigail Yamileth Ortiz Cabrera

Nombre del tema: Professions

Parcial: 2

Nombre de la Materia: Ingles II

Nombre del profesor: Enrique Eduardo Arreola Jiménez

Nombre de la Licenciatura: Enfermería

Cuatrimestre: 2

Professions

Nursing

Nursing is the care profession that emphasizes human relationships, help, and self-care through health promotion, disease prevention, and care for those in need.

Doctor

Doctors diagnose, treat, and help prevent ailments. The doctor's relationship with his patients is very important, since they provide them with information, support and comfort, as well as treatment.

Police officer

The police is a security force in charge of maintaining public order and the safety of citizens through the use of different civic and social tools.

Accountant

A public accountant or accountant is a professional who exercises the discipline of accounting or accounting within an economic field.

Receptionist

A receptionist is an employee who fills a clerical or administrative support position. Its main function is to welcome visitors and tell them where to go

Plumber

Plumbers carry out the diagnosis, installation and repair of pipes used for the distribution and disposal of air, gas and water in residential and industrial systems.

Electrician

An electrician is a professional who performs installations and repairs related to electricity, especially machines and lighting.

Painter

Painter is the person whose trade is the decoration and protection of walls, decks and other interior or exterior surfaces by applying paint.

Bellhop

In hospitality, person in charge of transporting luggage from the hotel client's vehicle to the client's room and vice versa.

Cashier

The cashier or cashier in a commercial establishment is a person responsible for adding the amount owed for a purchase