Outside my grandparents' house there is a window with flower curtains that are part of the kitchen, there are also many plants since my grandmother and my mother like flowers, on the right side there is a staircase and there is also a little sand in the garage, in the front part there is a black door to enter the house.

In the front part there are some steps to enter the black door, and in the background you can see that there are two doors that give access to the rooms, there is also an armchair, the window that is seen in the upper part is the from the bathroom, and there are still more flowers and a pot with three floors to place plants, as well as two bulbs to light on the outside.
