The house of my grandmother is big, it has two doors and gate.

It is yellow and blue, on the top it has red tiles.

The house, has two floors, from the outside you can see my grandmother's store and her living room, there is also a window.

Inside you can see the flowers, my grandmother likes to have a lush garden.

Un this photo you can't see it very well but the patio is big and the house has 6 rooms, a kitchen with a dining room and three barthrooms.
