

My grandmother's house in the lower part has two bathrooms, three rooms where each room has bed a dresser and a closet there is also a the kitchen where there is a stove the dining room chairs a showcase and the kitchen utensils there is also the patio and the garden and the las one on the ground floor is the living room where are two large armchairs a coffee table a fish tank and a cabinet where they have family photos and that is where there is a screen. In the upper part there are three bedrooms and two bathrooms and a study to work where my uncle who lives with my grandmother spends most of the time and in the background there is a balcony that overlooks the entire subdivision