HAUSE DESCRIPCION

TONY STARK

Tony Stark's house, is a mansion with rooms that reached high luxuries as we can see in the movie which is an impressive engineering since how much in each room with bed, furniture, bathrooms, and technology.

There is also a room which is central in which I could see a very long table, with centerpieces, more chairs around it, in the same room there were large vases

In the subway there was a garage where an artificial intelligence helped him, there were also cars, of different brands that broke them on several occasions, Tony's suits were there, and there was an elevator, and an exit through a subway
