shrek house

He lives in a house that has a garden, when he enters the house there is an armchair and next to it there is a table and in the back we have his dining room that has four chairs and the big table all of this is in front of the fireplace, passing his bedroom there is only one bed and next to a dresser where it has a lamp and even on the outside we can find his bathroom which is very small and next to his house there is a swamp that would be where he bathes
