Several years ago, I really wanted to be able to take a trip with my family, we wanted to get away from the hustle and bustle of the holidays, and focus on enjoying our own family, after much thought and planning we decided to go to Huatulco, we stayed in a hotel where we were able to enjoy a walk along the beach, rest in the hammocks that the beach club had, the food they served was delicious and what to say about swimming in the pool, our children enjoyed So much so that they wanted to wake up early to continue swimming, right there we celebrated the birthday of one of my sons, so it was unforgettable for everyone. God gave us that opportunity and we enjoyed it to the fullest.
